HOUSEWORK

Too much housework wrecks women's nerves. And the constant care of children, day and night, is often too trying for even a strong woman. A haggard face tells the story of the overworked housewife and mother. Deranged menses, leucorrhœa and falling of the womb result from overwork. Every housewife needs a remedy to regulate her menses and to keep her sensitive female organs in perfect condition.

WINE OF CARDUI

is doing this for thousands of American women to-day. It cured Mrs. Jones and that is why she writes this frank letter:

Glendeane, Ky., Feb. 10, 1901.

I am so glad that your Wine of Cardui is helping me. I am feeling better than I have felt for years. I am doing my own work without any help, and I washed last week and was not one bit tired. That shows that the Wine is doing me good. I am getting fleshier than I ever was before, and sleep good and eat hearty. Before I began taking Wine of Cardui, I used to have to lay down five or six times every day, but now I do not think of lying down through the day. MRS. RICHARD JONES.

HANDS AND FEET LONG AGO.

Modern Ideas Not Shared by the People of Antiquity.

"Why is it," remarked some one the other day, "that hands are honored and feet are dishonored in modern estimation—the former being the aristocrats, as it were, and the latter the plebeians of the human body? The ancients had no such prejudice. In the east the washing of the feet was done in public without hesitation, and to serve water and towels to a guest for such a purpose was considered an especial mark of attention.

"They were anointed and perfumed and the toes probably as carefully manicured and cared for as the fingers. In the Bible they are mentioned with especial honor, and in the days of classic beauty and art the most highborn woman never dreamed of covering her feet and showed them in all their naked beauty, only protected by sandals. Later on shoes and slippers came in vogue, but it was not until the high heel was invented and it became the fashion to have small feet that they became dishonored, for it was not until then that their disfigurement began, that their joints became enlarged and that the toes lost their beauty and that corns, the crowning mark of their disgrace, made their appearance.

"It is only fair to the present generation to say that of late years the foot has been more carefully treated. It has been no longer the fashion for some time to have particularly small feet, straightness and shapeliness being the prime essentials. Therefore the feet of the young women of the present day are not disfigured like those of their mothers. Still few even yet could afford to wear sandals at a fancy ball, even if the absurd modern idea that the feet must be clothed to be modest were not in force."—New York Tribune.

Shakespeare's Sonnets.

Says a literary man of some note: "It took me a long time to appreciate the beauties of Shakespeare's sonnets. On the first reading I found little in them to attract, but on the advice of a friend I kept on reading them. After a score of readings I began to see new meanings, and soon I became fascinated. I procured a small 'vest pocket' edition and carried it with me wherever I went, reading the sonnets in the street cars or wherever I happened to have a few minutes' leisure. They are really wonderful.

"Some of them I have read hundreds of times and have made them my own so far as memory can appropriate the thoughts of another. Now I can understand the enthusiasm of my friend, who says that if he had to give up either Shakespeare's sonnets or Shakespeare's plays it would be the plays that would have to go. I can think of no literature in so small a compass that so well repays reading and studying."

Two Bad Actors.

Years ago a theater was situated in the gardens of a once well known but now demolished public resort in the north of London. There the proprietor, who played comedy parts, gave an actor, also a "funny man," notice of dismissal. The latter, putting on an air of indignation, inquired why he was discharged.

"Well, you see, Jones," replied the proprietor bluntly, "you're a bad comedian."

"Eh, what?" exclaimed Jones. "If I'm a bad comedian, so are you—a very bad comedian!"

"Ah," rejoined the proprietor, "that's what it is, Jones! The audience won't stand two bad comedians, so one of us has to go, and I'm dead sure that one isn't me."

Kilkenny Cats.

During the rebellion which occurred in Ireland in 1798, or it may be in 1803, Kilkenny was garrisoned by a troop of Hessian soldiers, who amused themselves in barracks by tying two cats together by their tails and throwing them across a clothesline to fight. The officer, hearing of the cruel practice, resolved to stop it. As he entered the room one of the troopers, seizing a sword, cut the tails in two as the animals hung across the line. The two cats escaped minus their tails through the open window, and when the officer inquired the meaning of the two bleeding tails being left in the room he was coolly told that two cats had been fighting and had devoured each other, all but the tails.

Variety in Miles.

Miles vary in length. The old fashioned English mile is 5,280 feet, the nautical mile 6,085 feet, a Scotch mile is 5,928 feet, an Irish mile 6,720 feet. The German mile of today is 24,318 feet, the Dutch, Dane and Prussian mile is 18,440 feet, the Swedish mile is 22,043 feet and the Vienna post mile 26,388 feet.

HIS OLD FURNITURE.

Europe and America Clamors For It, but Higham Won't Sell.

To possess the celebrated "Higham furniture" is the ambition of the wealthy lovers of old furniture in Europe and the United States, but it is an ambition which probably never will be realized until the family of the present owners becomes extinct, for each heir entails the collection as far as he can, and no amount of money ever has tempted the Highams of Higham to think for a moment of parting with their valued possessions.

This furniture is a collection of perfect early English furniture and also of flawless "Chippendale" and "Sheraton" and is in the farmhouse of Mr. Higham of Higham, whose ancestors, a family of yeoman farmers, have cultivated the farm called The Hangings, near Higham, England, for centuries. Wealthy connoisseurs in this country and Europe have offered enormous amounts for the furniture, but the Highams will not sell a stick.

The actual value placed on the collection, which consists of fifty pieces, is $250,000, but Henry Grant, the British railway millionaire, offered $400,000 for it two years ago, an offer which was refused, like all other offers. Several pieces of this furniture date back to the twelfth century, and the more modern Sheraton chairs alone are valued at $100 each, while an old oak chest is appraised at $30,000.

No old "county family" or family of title in the three kingdoms has a finer collection of antique furniture than Mr. Higham, the yeoman, if, indeed, they have any single piece that can compare with his in all their castles and halls, and as long as there is a Higham of Higham the furniture will stay in the farmhouse of The Hangings.—New York Press.

Deafness.

"Deafness is very much more general than is supposed," is the statement of a famous physician. "Many persons who think they have perfect hearing are living under a delusion. In most cases, however, the ordinary deafness of people is the result of accumulations of wax in the ear. Those who are troubled in this way should never attempt to remove the wax themselves. They should go to a physician. Ninety-nine out of a hundred cases of chronic deafness are caused by catarrh of the nose and may be cured by treatment of that disease.

"People should be warned against putting anything into their ears, such as spoons, ear scoops, toothpicks, matches or finger nails. The mechanism of the ear is very delicate and is easily disarranged, and the use of such instruments by inexperienced persons is productive of the most serious results."

Thirteen Kept Him Back.

Some people carry their superstitions to ridiculous extremes. A fussy little man crowded into the elevator car on the ground floor of the Real Estate Trust building and hastily ran his eye over the other passengers. He was counting them, and he heaved a sign of satisfaction when he found that there were twelve. The elevator man was just about to close the door when another man, who seemed in a great hurry, crowded in.

The fussy little fellow who had been counting noses cried out: "Wait a minute! Let me off!" He squeezed his way out, and the car started upward.

"He makes me tired," remarked the elevator man. "I've seen him do that more than once. He's afraid something will happen if there are thirteen passengers on at one time."—Philadelphia Record.

Locating His Bet.

During the Newcastle races on the Town Moor when a famous horse won the Northumberland Plate the cry of "Hats off in front!" was raised and obeyed during the decision of the great event, says the Newcastle Chronicle. When the horses had passed, the "uncovered" ones, of course, "recovered" themselves.

A few moments afterward a young Northumbrian began to lift the hats of the spectators round about him and replaced them with expressions of vexation. On lifting the hat of one of the spectators he was asked what he was trying to do.

"Hoot, mon," he exclaimed, "Aw bet a croon wiv a baaldheeded chap, an' Aw cannot find him!"

To Stop Runaway Horses.

In Sicilian cities an appliance which is in general use and has been for a long time is an arrangement by which the breath of a horse is shut off when he attempts to run away. Standing out from the nostrils of the horses are little leather disks, which the pulling of a little rein by the driver claps down upon the animal's nose, thus shutting off his breath if he tries to get beyond control.

THE HUMAN EAR.

It Is a Delicate Organ and Should Be Treated Carefully.

The human ear is a much more delicate organ than most people suppose. It is extremely dangerous to interfere with it by use of ear picks or any of the various instruments used for the purpose of cleaning it from wax. The wax is a natural secretion, and unless the ear becomes diseased it does not accumulate any faster than is necessary to protect the passage from the entrance of insects and various particles which might otherwise be forced in and tend to interfere permanently with the hearing.

The greatest care is necessary in washing the ears of little children. They should be washed outside, but on the inside only so far as the finger wrapped in a soft towel will go. The practice of forcing a hairpin or any other hard instrument into the ear passage is fraught with danger of injuring the membrane, causing permanent deafness. Earache is a malady of childhood and causes most distressing pain. The simplest remedy for it is to take a little cotton dipped in warm sweet oil and put it in the ear passage.

A danger that may arise from doing so simple a thing as this is that minute particles of the cotton may be left in the ear. To prevent this some physicians advise making a little wad of the cotton and wrapping it in the finest and thinnest linen cambric that can be found and dipping this in warm sweet oil. In case of intense pain a few drops of hot laudanum or camphor may be used with the oil.

When foreign bodies get into the car, they should be removed by syringing them out with warm water. To attempt to remove anything from the ear passage by forcing an instrument in is a rash thing for any one except an aurist to undertake. The best medical practitioners refuse to treat affections of the ear or eye, but send their patients to specialists.

Christmas Card Evolution.

The Christmas card dates back to 1842, in which year the idea of such a device occurred to Sir Henry Cole, who employed the famous artist, J. C. Horsley, to make the design for him. Sir Henry gave his idea and design to a London publisher, who printed and sold about a thousand cards. They were lithographed and then colored by hand. Such was the small beginning of what is now an immense business. Every Christmas cards were put on the market, but they did not seem to be popular until 1862, when they came suddenly into favor in England and soon began to be used to a considerable extent on this side of the water. It was some years, however, before the Christmas card achieved in the United States the great popularity which it now enjoys. The first Christmas cards were simple affairs, those of the early sixties being mostly plain cards bearing the words "Merry Christmas" or "Happy New Year" only. They soon began to grow in ornateness, however, and finally arrived at their present state.

Uncommon Colds.

"It is just a common cold," people say, "there's no danger in that." Admitting their statement, then there are uncommon colds, colds which are dangerous; for many a fatal sickness begins with a cold. If we could tell the common cold from the uncommon we could feel quite safe. But we can't. The uncommon variety is rarely recognized until it has fastened its hold on the lungs, and there are symptoms of consumption.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures coughs, bronchitis, "weak" lungs and other diseases of the organs of respiration. It increases the supply of pure, rich blood and builds up the emaciated body.

"I took a severe cold which settled in the bronchial tubes," writes Rev. Frank Hay, of Nortonville, Jefferson Co., Kansas. After trying medicines labeled 'Sure Cure,' almost without number, I was led to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took two bottles and was cured, and have stayed cured. When I think of the great pain I had to endure, and the terrible cough I had, it seems almost a miracle that I was so soon relieved. That God may spare you many years and abundantly bless you is the prayer of your grateful friend."

If you ask your dealer for "Golden Medical Discovery" because you have confidence in its cures, do not allow yourself to be switched off to a medicine claimed to be "just as good," but which you did not ask for and of which you know nothing.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure dizziness and sick headache.

Gentlemen: I write this testimonial from a sense of duty, having tested the wonderful effect of your Asthmalene, for the cure of Asthma. My wife has been afflicted with spasmodic Asthma for the past 12 years. Having exhausted my own skill as well as many others, I chanced to see your sign upon your windows on 130th street, New York, I at once obtained a bottle of Asthmalene. My wife commenced taking it about the first of November. I very soon noticed a radical improvement. After taking one bottle her Asthma has disappeared and she is entirely free from all symptoms. I feel that I can consistently recommend the medicine to all who are afflicted with this distressing disease.
Yours respectfully, O. D. PHELPS, M. D.

DR. TAFT BROS. MEDICINE CO. February 5, 1901.

SONOMA, APRIL 5, 1902.

E. E. GRANICE - - - - - - - - - - - - EDITOR

At the municipal election held in Santa Rosa Wednesday party lines were closely drawn. The Democrats secured ten and the Republicans six of the offices. The Republicans elected Geo. S. Brown and Fred. King City Councilmen; Chas. Clawson, City Clerk; J. H. Brackett, Street Commissionsr; Henry Silvershield, Assessor, and L. D. Rathbone, Library Trustee. The Democrats won out on M. J. Bower for Mayor; Mike McDonough, Councilman; Marvin T. Vaughan, City Attorney; J. M. Carter, Treasurer; Geo. Severson, City Marshal; W. P. Badgley, Recorder; A. C. McMeans, W. D. Reynolds, C. A. Hoffer and D. P. Anderson, Library Trustees. This election has no political significance outside of Santa Rosa on the State and County election next fall, as the personal popularity of the elected men really had more to do with their success at the polls than anything else. The contest for county offices at the general election promises to be a lively and a very close one.

April Showers.

The traditional April showers have been very much in evidence this week. The showers started in on the 1st of the month, and there was a heavy downpour on that day. Thursday was showery, too, and the precipitation was sufficient to keep the ground moist and in excellent growing condition. These showers came at a most opportune time and will insure a fine yield of hay and grain and pasturage in abundance.

How To Gain Flesh

Persons have been known to gain a pound a day by taking an ounce of SCOTT'S EMULSION. It is strange, but it often happens.

Somehow the ounce produces the pound; it seems to start the digestive machinery going properly, so that the patient is able to digest and absorb his ordinary food, which he could not do before, and that is the way the gain is made.

A certain amount of flesh is necessary for health; if you have not got it you can get it by taking

Chas. Donahue and his son Harry visited relatives here Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Wm. Goodman is seriously ill. Dr. Rich of Sonoma is the attending physician.

Jack Lindsay of San Francisco was the guest of his friend, Robert Donahue, Sunday.

John Stetson of San Francisco was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Akers last Sunday.

Abramo Marcucci, mine host of Marcucci's Hotel, visited San Francisco several days this week.

Wm. Kennedy of Oakland was the guest of Schellville friends on Thursday and Friday of last week.

Walter Harper, who has been doing service for Uncle Sam in the army and navy the past three years, is expected home the coming week.

Harry Baum and daughter and Mrs. Isis and daughter of San Francisco were guests of the Schellville Gun and Rod Club last Monday and Tuesday.

Miss Zarifa Howe, a student at Heald's business college, San Francisco, is visiting Eden Dale for a few days. She is accompanied by Miss Amy Hammond.

Mrs. Chas. H. Ohm's mother is not expected to live. Mrs. Ohm was called to her bedside in San Francisco one day this week and has not yet returned to her home at Embarcadero.

Quite a number of Schellville boys tackled Sonoma creek for trout on the opening day. Wm. Rubke made the biggest catch. In addition to a fine basket of trout he landed a ten-pound salmon.

The horses attached to the Central Market's butcher wagon became frightened by a passing train at this place last Monday and ran away. Harry Fischeer, the driver, was serving a customer at the time and being in the rear of the wagon the nags had it all their own way. They headed for Sonoma but were stopped in front of the Lubeck place by Claude Skidmore. The horses kept into the middle of the road and avoiding a collision with other teams no damage was done.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Mansfield and Mrs. Fanny Goodwin of Boston, Mass., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Merriam several days this week. Mrs. Mansfield and Mrs. Goodwin are cousins of Mr. Merriam, and have not met him for many years. The re-union was a most pleasant one. Mr. Mansfield, who is a wealthy wholesale grocer of the Hub, with his little party leaves to-day on his return journey home. Previous to coming here the party spent several weeks in Southern California.

NOW LOOK OUT!

"Take care of yourself," say our friends. "I'll try to," we answer. We do take a little care, yet in spite of warm clothes, rubbers and mackintoshes, an army of people were bowled out by pneumonia and other lung and chest diseases last winter. They caught cold, neglected it, let it fix upon them, were torn by coughs, choked by inflammations and congestions, wasted by fever, tired out by pain and then gave up the fight. The hour you realize that you have a cold on the chest, place a Benson's Porous Plaster where the pain or oppression is felt. If you think two are needed make it two. No harm if you were covered with them. They act quickly and prevent the engorgment of blood in the organs. In this way—with ordinary caution as to exposure—you will break up the cold and avoid a serious sickness. No other applications, or any other form of treatment, will accomplish this as certainly and speedily. Benson's Plasters have a distinct and positive action and are curative to the highest degree. Use them with the same confidence for coughs, muscular rheumatism, the grip (back and chest) and all similar ailments. Women, who are chief sufferers from cold weather complaints, should keep these plasters always within reach. Get the genuine. All druggists, or we will prepay postage on any number ordered in the United States on receipt of 25c. each.

In Department I of the Superior Court on Monday the following matters were disposed of:

The final accounts of the estates of Melissa B. Button and Alice Colwell and Edward H. McKenna were settled and allowed.

A sale of property in the estates of Francis Gilbert was confirmed and orders for sales of property in the estates of John H. Ehlers and M. J. Striening were granted.

Probate matters continued—Estates of Rasminne Pedersen, Charles Weigand, W. H. McCray and Frank McElarney to April 7th; estate of Emily C. Stanley to April 14th.

Mary E. Cole was appointed administratrix on the estate of Christian H. Young on a bond of $320.

The trial of the action of Bonnard vs. Bonnard was reset for trial on April 16th and the trial of the action of the Farmers' and Merchants' Bank vs. Merchant et al was set for May 13th.

Defendant was permitted to withdraw an account book in the action of Joff Fine vs. C. G. Bryant.

The actions of the Savings Bank of Santa Rosa vs. Geary and City of Santa Rosa vs. Fountain Water Co. were continued to April 7th.

In addition to several criminal matters in Departmint II the following matters came before the Court:

Matters continued—Estate of Mary C. Kelly to April 28th, Hopper vs. Hopper, Alexander Warner vs. John Lloyd, Tanning Company vs. Schlotterbach, Jane Peters vs. J. P. Williams et al and Estinghausen vs. Schoeningh, all to April 7th.

In the Superior Court, Tuesday, an interesting trial was in progress before Judge Dougherty in the matter of the estate of Charles Potter, deceased, which is an effort to have the decedent further live up to an agreement he entered into with Sherman Brothers to sell them twenty-five acres of land. Before the agreement was fulfilled and after the Shermans had deposited, it is said, $100 on the deal, Charles R. Potter died. His father, as his sole heir, has declined to recognize the agreement. Haskell & Denny, Lyman Green and F. A. Meyer are the attorneys concerned. Among the witnesses called were A. M. Bianchi, George White, P. H. Atkinson, J. Howard, H. J. Pohlmann, S. A. Jones, C. Kelly, James Potter, D. McKillup, W. A. Martin, C. Bunderson.

Good for Rheumatism.

Last fall I was taken with a very severe attack of muscular rheumatism which caused me great pain and annoyance. After trying several prescriptions and rheumatic cures, I decided to use Chamberlain's pain balm, which I had seen advertised in the South Jerseyman. After two applications of this remedy I was much better, and after using one bottle was completely cured.—Sallie Harris, Salem, N. J. For sale by F. Duhring.

A Veteran Danseuse.

Probably the professional life of no class is so short as that of the ladies who dance for our delight in the season of pantomime, and none nowadays can be said to dance through two generations. What a surprise the present public would experience at such an announcement as appeared in the London Weekly Journal of Jan. 26, 1723, that a veteran danseuse, aged seventy-one, would on a certain date perform a series of dances. The celebrated Peggy Fryar, therein advertised, had publicly danced in the early years of the reign of Charles II. and made her final appearance in the time of George II. Her dancing in her seventy-second year drew crowds to the New theater in the Haymarket in 1723, but the charm was probably the novelty rather than the excellence of her performance.

TWO SUMMERS.

Summer at the Shore and Summer in the Store.

It is sometimes remarked that the requirements of society entail as much hard work upon a woman as she would perform in office or in store. That may be true. The woman who dances the night through may travel more miles than are walked by the woman behind the counter. Her social obligations may be as exacting as business duties. But if the society woman dances all night, she can sleep all day. If her calls must be duly paid, she has her carriage in which to drive. She is not at the mercy of an alarm clock in the morning, or of store routine during the day. And, above all, after the round of winter gayeties, there's the sea shore for the summer, with its freedom and its health giving ocean breezes. The chances of health are all in favor of the girl that goes to the shore and all against the girl that stays in the store.

SUMMER IN THE CITY

is unendurable, says society with its luxurious surroundings. What must summer in a city store be? At the best it is trying to nerves and temper. The long, languid days, the oppressive atmosphere, the monotonous round of duties are all trying. And when to this is added womanly weakness, the condition is well-nigh unbearable. And yet it must be borne for money must be earned if life is to be sustained.

Every working woman owes it to herself to bring her physical health to the highest standard of excellence—not only because it increases her happiness, but also because it increases her earning capacity. It is a cruel fact that the floor walker has, as a rule, no sympathy with the backache and weakness which impel a woman to seek an occasional moment's rest for her aching back, if only by leaning rigidly against the shelves behind her.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. Hundreds of thousands of women have testified to this fact.

"I write a few lines to thank you for your advice and grand remedies, to which I owe my health, and perhaps my life," says Miss Flora I. Greer, of 107 Howe Street, Akron, Ohio. "My troubles started during my childhood but did not prove serious until 1893, when I met with an accident caused by a horse running away. From that time I did not see a well day. I suffered at every monthly period with terrible headache, irritation of the spine and pains in my heels so I could not bear them resting on the softest pillow. What I suffered pen could never describe. I had soreness through my hips and ovaries all the time and constant backache. Was afraid to be alone, imagined that everyone hated me, and everything looked like a mountain. One doctor would tell me one thing ailed me, another would say something altogether different, but they only relieved me. I then wrote to you in April, 1899, through the advice of a neighbor, and followed your advice from April to July. I took five bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and four of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and five vials of 'Pellets.' Have not had a single symptom of my old trouble so far. Can sleep good nights, work hard, and can eat solid and substantial food without distress. There are several of my friends taking your medicines with the best results since they have seen how they helped me."

WORK IS PLEASURE

when you are well and strong; you then go to work with the joy of doing. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will make you strong and well if your ailments are within the compass of medicine to cure. It establishes regularity, dries the drains that weaken women, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It cures headache, backache, dizziness and other consequences of womanly ills. It promotes the appetite, soothes the nerves and induces refreshing sleep.

"I feel it a duty to inform you that I had been a sufferer for many years from nervousness with all its symptoms and complications," writes Mrs. O. N. Fisher, of 1861 Lexington Ave., New York, N. Y. "I was constantly going to see a physician or purchasing medicine for this or that complaint as my troubles became unbearable. In the spring of 1897 my husband induced me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. After taking one bottle and following your advice I was so encouraged that I took five more bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and then I did not take any more for several weeks as I felt so much better, but still I was not completely cured. I commenced taking it again and felt that I was improving faster than at first. I am not now cross and irritable, and I have a good color in my face; have also gained about ten pounds in weight and one thousand pounds of comfort, for I am a new woman once more and your advice and your 'Favorite Prescription' are the cause of it, coupled with the 'Pleasant Pellets,' which are not to be dispensed with. I took eight bottles of the 'Prescription' the last time, making fourteen in all, and will not take any more unless you so advise, for I do not see as I need it.

"I have told my friends how I was cured, and have been no little surprised to learn how many of them used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription with great benefit. I have induced several to try and have heard that they were much pleased with results."

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

There is no alcohol in "Favorite Prescription," and it is entirely free from opium, cocaine and other narcotics. It is a pure vegetable preparation, and cannot disagree with the most delicate constitution.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets clear the complexion and sweeten the breath.

"Favorite Prescription" has the testimony of thousands of women to its complete cure of womanly diseases. Do not accept an unknown and unproved substitute in its place.

WOMEN WHO WORK

will appreciate Dr. Pierce's gift of his medical book, The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser. It contains over a thousand large pages, and is full of helpful hints and information on topics of vital interest to every woman. Send 21 one-cent stamps (to pay expense of mailing only), for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Schley and Santiago

BY GEORGE EDWARD GRAHAM.

The intrepid Associated Press war correspondent, who was aboard the U. S. S. Brooklyn during the entire five months of the campaign. Illustrated with photographs taken by the Author during the fight.

The Most Sensational Book of the Day.

The true story of the famous cruise of the Flying Squadron under Commodore Winfield Scott Schley, including the blockade and destruction of the Spanish fleet, TOLD FOR THE FIRST TIME.

Contains an autograph endorsement and personal account of the battle by Rear-Admiral Schley.

"The facts of the story of the movements and operations of the Flying Squadron as the author tells them in this book are correct."
—W. S. SCHLEY.

An interesting narrative of facts. Explains the so-called "Retrograde Movement;" the "Loop;" the "Coaling Problem," and settles conclusively every adverse ruling of the Court of Inquiry.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT, when Governor of New York, said:—"Mr. Graham's story is the best account I have heard or read of the naval fighting during the war. It needed just as much courage to go about taking photographs as it did to work the guns."

THE NEW YORK HERALD says:—"Mr. Graham, in the telling of facts, leaves the reader free to make the deduction that several naval officers need a Court of Inquiry to re-establish their reputations, if they can be re-established."

No subject has ever been before the public that has interested everybody as the manner in which Admiral Schley has been treated, and the American people demand the full recognition of the Hero of Santiago. This book tells everything just as it occurred and as the eyewitnesses saw it. Book is selling like wildfire. Liberal commissions. Outfit and books now ready. Send seven 2-cent stamps for canvassing outfit. ACT QUICK. Now is the time to MAKE MONEY.

HE LAY DOWN ON TRACK.

A Young Man's Peculiar Actions.

Emile Boscaccio, employed by Frank Demartini as a driver for his milk wagon for several months, boarded a Southern Pacific southbound train at El Verano on Sunday last without any apparent destination. When the cars were near Vallejo Junction Boscaccio was put off the train by Conductor Gage, as he was without a ticket and had only fifty cents in his pocket. In ejecting him from the cars the conductor thought the young fellow was a hobo trying to beat his way to the metropolis.

After being put off the train Boscassio took to the track and started to return to El Verano on foot. Later on when Conductor Gages train was on its return trip the engineer discovered the young man lying on the track. The shrill whistle of the locomotive failed to arouse the prostrate figure, the air-brakes were applied and the train brought to a standstill just in time to prevent Boscaccio being crushed to death beneath the wheels of the ponderous engine.

Conductor Gage, realizing that the young fellow was suffering from aberration of the mind, asked him where he lived, and was correctly told by Boscaccio that he came from Sonoma. The conductor then kindly took him in charge and when El Verano was reached turned him over to Deputy Sheriff Ryan.

Boscaccio's conduct greatly surprised his acquaintances as he was always considered well balanced. The young man first exhibited signs of a diseased mind last Saturday. He was discovered in his room by Frank Demartini, his step-brother, with a lighted candle in his hand and had burned all the hair off the crown of his head, which was badly blistered by the burning hair. His parents have him in charge and it is thought that he is only suffering from a temporary aberration of mind and will soon be himself again.

Boscaccio was taken to Napa Wednesday by his relatives to be treated by Dr. Hennessey. The doctor, after examining the young man, advised his relatives to take him to Santa Rosa and having him examined by the doctors and committed to an asylum for the insane.

The young man was thereupon taken to Santa Rosa on Thursday and examined by a lunacy commission. He was found to be a fit subject for an asylum and was committed to the Napa State Hospital, where Dr. Hennessey hopes he will be restored to his mental balance in a very few months.

Fisherman's Luck.

The opening day for trout was anything but an ideal one for the expectant fisherman. About eight o'clock a heavy rain set in and continued well into the afternoon. A large number of local fishermen, who had wended their way to the various trout streams in this valley early in the morning, got a thorough soaking and few if any fish.

Singular to relate it usually rains in this valley on April 1st, as the editor has cause to remember on more than one occasion. We kept out of the wet this time, though.

A Generous Offer.

A. Pinelli, one of Sonoma's enterprising citizens, has offered to donate to the city all the stone for its new City Hall. This is a very generous offer and one, too, which cannot be overlooked by the City Trustees. The building stone in Mr. Pinnelli's quarries is the finest in the State. We trust the Trustees will accept Mr. Pinnelli's offer. Now who will donate the sand and lime?

Peter Gouailhardou, the popular proprietor of the Bellevue Hotel, has completely recovered from a severe spell of sickness.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wyatt came over from Petaluma Wednesday. They are the guests of Mrs. Wyatt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pilastre.

Wm. Sherman, who is doing newspaper work on the Evening Post of San Francisco, spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents in this place.

Mrs. M. Serveau, sister of mine host Gouailhardou of the Bellevue, returned to her home in the metropolis Sunday after a visit of several days in this place.

O. W. Nordwell of San Francisco visited his ranch near this place Sunday. He found everything on the farm in tip-top shape under the management of foreman Johnson.

John E. Kearney, who is now an employee of the Alameda pottery works, was in town Saturday evening and Sunday. He returned to Alameda on the afternoon of the latter day.

M. F. Mullen, the well-known station agent of the Southern Pacific Company, is up and around again after being confined to his bed for three weeks under the care of Dr. Walliser.

Three young bloods from Sonoma were thrown from a buggy in this place on Friday of last week by their horse running away. All escaped injury but the rig was upset and badly wrecked.

George Laux was in this burg one day this week looking at the town lots on sale here. George says he is thinking of investing here if he can find a desirable location for a home. This looks as though our young friend was contemplating matrimony and intended settling down here.

Local fishermen had very good luck on April 1st. Emile P. Lounibos and Fred Carriger fished Sonoma creek and landed forty fair-sized trout. Mike Mullen caught twenty-five, the largest weighing two pounds and a quarter. The balance of the catch varied between fifteen and eighteen inches in length. Kenneth Weaver was the unlucky fisherman of the day. He got a good soaking and hooked but five of the speckled beauties.

Deputy Fish Commissioner Walter, who has been patrolling Sonoma creek and its tributaries in this vicinity the past six weeks, on Monday evening last arrested a San Francisco sportsman (?) for fishing out of season. The offender was caught red handed by Deputy Walter on Sonoma creek near Glen Ellen. He had only one trout in his possession, but for all that he might as well have had fifty, in so far as the law is concerned. The violator of the law was hauled up before Judge Gibson of Glen Ellen and pleading guilty to the charge was fined $20 by his Honor. It is about time a stop was put to the violation of the fish laws in this valley. The principal offenders are those who use dynamite. These fiends are very much in evidence in our streams every season. Deputy Fish Commissioner Walter's attention is called to this fact. Your correspondent would suggest that he lay for these fellows. They should be arrested and made an example of. The parties addicted to this practice are well-known, but have yet to be caught in the act.

THE FEMALE GRAFTER.

Again Heard From—This Time it is Modesto.

Miss Lottie Tillotson, the female grafter, who was first exposed in these columns several weeks ago, has again been heard from. This time she turns up in Modesto on that old route of hers—the graft. The News of that place gives her the following send-off:

"Modesto was victimized by Miss Lottie Tillotson, who claimed to be a talented elocutionist. When in Modesto about three years ago the woman appeared to a small audience in one of the churches of this city. When she left it was found that she had stolen some bedding from the room she occupied. At Merced she stole other articles and she was arrested and fined. A few days since at Crockett, Contra Costa county, she gave an entertainment in conjunction with the schools. Her Delsarte movements were described as being more in the nature of spasms than anything else. Later when an accounting was asked for she grabbed all the money and left on the next train out. She was arrested at Pinole and brought back. She deposited $100 cash bail for her appearance in court."

INCIDENT OF THE RAIL.

One Train Collides With the Rear End of Another.

Sonoma passengers on the California Northwestern south-bound train Sunday afternoon got a good shaking up and a bad scare near Reed's station.

A train, heavily laden with passengers, left San Rafael at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. It was followed by another train, also crowded. While turning a curve outside the long tunnel, passengers on the first train were horrified to see a runaway engine racing towards them. Women in the rear coach screamed and most of the men became excited. One woman attempted to jump out of the window, but was restrained by her husband. A man became so excited that he commenced jumping from seat to seat. All this time the wild engine was coming closer and closer and at last, with a fearful force it struck the last car. The shock and noise were terrific. The steps and the back platform of the coach were demolished and the headlight of the engine was smashed to pieces.

Gradually the train was slowed up and the passengers in the rear coach, who were in a very nervous state from their narrow escape, were taken into a car ahead. The engine was backed up and finally traffic was renewed.

The cause of the accident was a miscalculation in timing the second train. It had two engines and when rounding the curve the engineer, seeing the train so close ahead, applied the air brakes on the engine attached to the train. The leading engine of the two had no air brakes and the force of the shock in stopping the train broke the coupling and started the locomotive on its wild flight. Traffic was delayed on the road about an hour and a half owing to the accident.

CHARGED WITH MAYHEM

Outcome of a Saturday Night Carousal.

Oscar Roberts, employed on the Rudolph Spreckels ranch, was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan last Monday on a charge of mayhem. The warrant for Roberts' arrest was issued by Justice of the Peace Small, on complaint of Henry Willner, a fellow employee on the same ranch. The accused was brought into town by the officer and locked up pending a preliminary examination before Judge Small.

The arrest was the outcome of a Saturday night carousal. It appears that the accused, after having had a good time with the boys at a near-by resort, returned to the Spreckels ranch in a very hilarious mood and making his way to the bunk house aroused the sleeping inmates with his boisterousness. Roberts then became engaged in scrimmage with Willner, whom he had rousted out of bed, and in the mix-up, it is alleged, Roberts got one of Willner's thumbs in his mouth and tried to eat him up.

The preliminary examination of the accused was to have been held Tuesday afternoon, but as District Attorney Webber was engaged in prosecuting a case in another part of the county the examination was postponed.

Later on the complainant withdrew his charge of mayhem and the accused was allowed to plead guilty to simple assault and was fined $15 by Judge Small. Roberts paid the fine.

Church Entertainment.

A grand musical and literary entertainment will be given at Union Hall by the Catholic ladies of Sonoma, for the benefit of St. Francis' Church, on Saturday evening, April 19th, 1902. The program to be presented will be made up of the best local and San Francisco talent. The main feature of the entertainment will be an operetta entitled the "Cupboard Lovers," under the direction of Mr. J. C. O'Donnell of San Francisco. Prof. O'Donnell, the prince of amateur comedians, has organized a troupe composed of five characters for the occasion, and claims that the drama will furnish five laughs a minute. In addition to the operetta some of the performers will sing the latest and up-to-date songs. The evening's entertainment will conclude with a social hop at which refreshments will be served. Those who attend will be assured a grand treat and an enjoyable evening. Admission to the hall will be fifty cents. *

THE GIRLS OF HOLLAND.

Educated With the Boys and Go Into Business For Themselves.

In Holland the mass of every class go to public schools and all mix together. Education begins at six years of age in the public schools, and at twelve a girl is examined and passes on for a five years' course in the higher burgher schools, of which Holland possesses seventy-two. The coeducation of the sexes is an admitted principle. In the primary schools boys and girls are brought up together, they learn side by side and are on familiar terms from early childhood without the smallest ill resulting. A great point is made of languages, and no Dutch girl of the upper or middle classes is considered educated who cannot speak English, French and German more or less fluently.

Probably owing to the system of education in force the women folk are inclined to grow up somewhat independent. We are told that the prejudice against women working for a livelihood has almost disappeared, and even rich women sometimes choose a profession. They include doctors, dentists, many of them first rate, photographers and gardeners. About 1,000 girls hold posts as assistant chemists, some 3,000 are nurses, trained in the White Cross homes and on a par with the very best of their profession. A woman is curator of the National History museum in Haarlem, and another holds the same post at Utrecht, while a third is head dispenser at a hospital in Amsterdam. The railway, post and telegraph offices are largely served by female clerks, who altogether outnumber the male.—London Humanitarian.

Amber In Ancient Rome.

In such repute was amber in Rome in the time of the historian Pliny that he remarks sarcastically, "The price of a small figure in it, however diminutive, exceeds that of a living healthy slave." He observes also, "True it is that a collar of amber beads worn about the necks of young infants is a singular preservative against secret poison and a counter charm for witchcraft and sorceries." He says further that as an article of personal ornamentation amber was used to produce imitations of precious stones by artificial staining, a use to which it was peculiarly adapted owing to its brilliant luster, combined with the ease with which it could be worked and polished.

When Silk Was Costly.

When silk was first worn in England, two mantles on the shoulders of noble ladies belonging to Elizabeth's court attracted more attention than even the queen. The manufacture of goods from raw silk began in England in 1604 and was brought to perfection by the Huguenot refugees in 1688. Even at that time, however, silk was very costly, a pair of stockings costing in our money a little over $100, a cloak a little less than $1,000.

Among the 3,052 dresses left by Elizabeth at her death only twelve were of silk, and Leicester, more than his knighthood, prided himself on a pair of silk breeches which he had imported from Italy at an expense of over $500.

How Indians Use Ants.

The grip of an ant's jaw is retained even after the body has been bitten off and nothing but the head remains. This knowledge is possessed by a certain tribe of Indians in Brazil, who put the ants to a very peculiar use. When an Indian gets a gash cut in his hand, instead of having his hand sewed together, as physicians do in this country, he procures five or six large black ants, and, holding their heads near the gash, they bring their jaws together in biting the flesh and thus pull the two sides of the gash together. Then the Indian pinches off the bodies of the ants and leaves the heads clinging to the flesh, which is held together until the gash is perfectly healed.

How to Get Ink Out of Clothes.

Nearly every housekeeper has many garments spotted with ink. Here is a good way to get the ink out. Ink spots may be removed from linen with tartaric acid while wet. To remove ink from cotton, silk or woolen goods saturate the spot with spirits of turpentine and let it remain several hours; then rub between the hands. It will crumble away without injuring the color or texture of the article.

A VALUABLE MEDICINE.

For Coughs and Colds in Children.

"I have not the slightest hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to all who are suffering from coughs or colds," says Chas. M. Cramer, Esq., a well-known watchmaker of Columbo, Ceylon. "It has been some two years since the City Dispensary first called my attention to this valuable medicine and I have repeatedly used it and it has always been beneficial. It has cured me quickly of all chest colds. It is especially effective for children and seldom takes more than one bottle to cure them of hoarseness. I have persuaded many to try this valuable medicine, and they are as well pleased as myself over the results." For sale by F. Duhring. *

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N.Y.

The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.

ARE YOU DEAF? ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF

DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable.

HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

BALTIMORE, Md., March 30, 1901.

Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.

About five years ago my right ear began to sing, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.

I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.

I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours,

F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation.
